

FIGHT REFEREE WHITE ARGUES WITH MINISTER

Sporting Man Gets Job for Boy Who Had Taken One Bad Step.

NOT PREACHER'S WAY.

Rev. Mr. Mansfield Thought
the Youngster Should Be Sent to a Reformatory.

There was quite a controversy in one of the corridors of the City Hall today between "Johnny" White, of the Bowery, and Rev. Archibald R. Mansfield, manager of a mission at No. 1 State street. It concerned the action of White, who is a sporting man and referee prize fights at times, in assuming the guardianship of a little boy, accused of crime and about to be sent to a reformatory.

White was in Jefferson Market Police Court yesterday when his attention was attracted to a blabbering boy who was waiting arraignment on a charge of assisting in a burglary. The boy had no friends and Magistrate Corrigan was about to commit him to an institution when the Bowery man took his part.

Takes Charge of the Boy.

"That boy," said White to the Magistrate, "is a good face. I've knocked around this town a lot and I'll bank on him. He tells me he climbed in a window and opened the door of a store at the request of a man who said he was the proprietor. The boy didn't know the man was a burglar. Parole that has in my custody, your Honor," concluded White, "and I'll guarantee to make a man of him."

White learned that the boy was an orphan. He bought him some clothes and shoes, placed him in a boarding house and got him a job.

It appears that the Rev. Mr. Mansfield, learning of this transaction, felt himself called to protest. He started on White's trail and found him today in the Marriage License Bureau of the City Hall.

"Your action was most unwise," declared the Rev. Mr. Mansfield after he had introduced himself to White. "This boy should have been sent to a reformatory, where he would have been purged of his criminal instincts."

"You are a clergyman," replied White. "I'll talk to you in a way I wouldn't use if you were not a clergyman. Mind, I don't recognize your right to kick into this matter at all. I know that a reformatory is a bad place for a boy unless he is naturally a bad boy. This boy is all right. If he has done wrong I am going to give him a chance to redeem himself outside a prison. I hold myself responsible for him."

Criticizes the Minister.

"People like you mean well, but you don't know anything. If you bet your way you'd go all in your power to make a criminal out of this kid simply because he took one bad step. In taking care of the boy I'm following the teaching of Congressman Timothy D. Sullivan. Sullivan believes in giving boys a chance and tells all his followers to do all they can along that line. I am going to keep this boy. I'll set you anything you want to put up hell turn out all right, too."

Mr. Mansfield was not satisfied and said so. White betrayed evidences of getting ready to advance some warlike arguments, and the minister walked away. In the mean time the boy is at work in his new job.

HOBOKEN TO BE DRY?

The Hoboken Common Council, in obedience to a writ of mandamus recently issued, passed last night a resolution directing that all saloons in the windows of saloons be removed. But days ago required by the Hoboken law. When the resolution is signed by the Mayor it becomes effective, and Hoboken will be dry Sunday, unless the police deliberately overlook violations of the law.

$500,000 More Gold Coming.

An engagement of $500,000 in gold for import was announced today by the Guaranty Trust Company. This makes a total of $1,000,000 engaged for import during the present movement.

RUN DOWN BY WAGON.

Woman Took to Street to Avoid Crash on Sidewalk.

Sophia Ullrich, of No. 412 Fifty-third street, Brooklyn, took to the street on Park Row today in order to avoid the early rush crowd, and while her attention was turned to the City Hall clock a heavy truck ran her down. She was picked up in a dazed condition, but recovered before an ambulance arrived. The driver of the wagon, Frank Moody, of No. 73 Third avenue, was not held by the police.

Men massage after shaving, prevent baldness, relieve pain, indigestion, constipation, headaches, sleeplessness, rheumatism, deafness and nervousness.

VIBRATION IS NOW RECOGNIZED the world over as the greatest aid to health and beauty available. It promotes beauty and restores health by increasing the circulation of the blood to the perspiration of the pores, which builds up weak and scrawny tissue and distributes deposits of excess fat. You can perfect your face or figure to suit their needs, stop all pains due to indigestion, and nothing to get out of order, but expense for massage by a child, merely by turning the crank. Through a marvellously simple invention, one turn of the handle yields 12,000 vibrations, two turns a second yield 24,000 vibrations, a minute

READ WHAT THIS DOCTOR SAYS

Extract from letter received from a leading physician of Pennsylvania. Name and address will be furnished on application.
"Your Vibro-Life is certainly up-to-date in every respect. I have used it every day since I have had it, with good results in every respect. I never had a letter one and do believe can never get a better one. I am about to sell one of my old Vibrators. After completing the sale I will buy the second one from you. I want one more of your Vibrators, as I cannot do with only one. If any one is in doubt about your Vibrator, tell them to come to me or send to me and I will gladly give them all the information they need. I have given between 700 and 800 treatments with the Vibro-Life. DR. W. H. E."

FROM A PROFESSIONAL MASSEUR.

Gentlemen—Kindly send one of your agents to see me in regard to one of your Vibrators. I purchased one from you a few months ago, and since that time my business has more than doubled.

I find the Vibro-Life is particularly effective in removing wrinkles, crow's feet, pimples, etc. My customers all like it very much.
MRS. B. HANAWAY, No. 2306 Seventh Ave., New York.

SHE CONSIDERS IT A NECESSITY.

Gentlemen—I am returning to you by bearer my Vibro-Life. I accidentally dropped it this morning and when you kindly repair it and return it to me at the earliest possible moment, as I cannot do without it. I consider it just as necessary to a woman's health as her brush.
MRS. G. L. CARPENTER, No. 134 East Sixteenth St., New York City.

FOR RHEUMATISM, INDIGESTION AND LAM' BACK.

Gentlemen—in reply to yours of recent date, I beg to say that the Vibro-Life I purchased from you has certainly benefited me wonderfully. I have been using it for indigestion and lame back. It has entirely cured the lame back and has done a great improvement in the indigestion. I might also add that my mother-has used it for sciatic rheumatism. She says it is WORTH ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD.
"President E. L. O'Connor Mfg. Co., No. 520 W. 11th St., New York."

VERY EFFECTIVE IN CONSTIPATION.

Gentlemen—Kindly send one of your booklets to Louis F. Graveline, No. 112
Franklin street, Astoria, Ore. I am about to send you one of your Vibrators.
I feel very well pleased with the one I got from you some time ago. I have constipation, and I find it very effective and cheerfully recommend it to any one suffering from that trouble. You may publish this letter if you wish. Yours truly, WILLIAM O. SULLIVAN, 233 E. Thirty-third St., New York.

Terrific Slaughter of Holiday Prices

After sizing up our stocks of holiday goods and the buying capacity of the public, we have determined upon the most drastic price-cutting ever known in December. Only a few more days remain in which to dispose of thousands upon thousands of dollars' worth of Christmas merchandise, and we make reductions on Friday that totally ignore original cost and former quotations.

Toy Prices Have Taken a Tumble

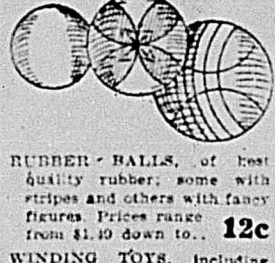

We know we have only four days more in which to dispose of our immense stock of toys, and realize that some big price cutting is necessary to hurry them out.
